

Teratology Education Course (4th -6th September 2018)

Prescribing in Pregnancy - From science to clinical practice

Tues 4th
Education
course
Day 1

Lindisfarne room

Registration

Introduction to teratology, Lew Holmes (USA)

Basics of human fetal development/embryology including brain & placenta, Andrew Copp (UK)

Antenatal screening in the context of teratogen surveillance,
Paul Moran (UK)

Human Embryology and birth defects: the interplay between genes and environment, Jill Clayton Smith (UK)

Consequences of not treating the mother, Marian Knight (UK)

National Congenital Anomaly and Rare Disease Registration Service (NCARDRS) and birth defect surveillance, Sarah Stevens (UK)

Assessing the evidence regarding teratogenic risk in human pregnancy,
Simon Thomas (UK)

Wed 5th
Education
course
Day 2

Lindisfarne room

Prescribing in pregnancy, Ken Hodson (UK)

Treatment of diabetes in pregnancy, Stuart Little (UK)

Obesity in pregnancy, Suzie Jackson (UK)

Management of epilepsy in women of child bearing potential and pregnancy, Sanjay Sisodiya (UK)

Review of anti-epileptic drug teratogenicity, Rebecca Bromely (UK)

Treatment of maternal mental illness in pregnancy, Hamish McAllister-Williams (UK)

Pregnancy in transplant recipients and dialysis in pregnancy, Laura Baines (UK)

Fetal alcohol spectrum disorders (FASDs), Stephen Braddock (USA)

Treatment of pregnancy sickness and hyperemesis gravidarum, Steve Robson (UK)

aHUS in pregnancy, Edwin Wong (UK)

Thurs 6th Education course Day 3	Lindisfarne room
	Zika and other infectious teratogens, Lavinia Schuler-Faccini (Brazil)
	Risk communication in teratology counselling, Beth Conover (USA)
	Paternal exposure and fetal risk, Maria Hoeltzenbein (Germany)
	Breastfeeding and medication, Wendy Jones (UK) & Laura Kearney (UK)